

Creative Fundraising Opportunity for Nonprofit Organizations

CLICK HERE
FOR VIDEO CLIP

Book now for a Mario the Peddler show date.

The 90-minute stage production of the one-man show was written and is performed by award-winning and bestselling author Anthony (Tony) Bottagaro. See video clips at <http://mariothepeddler.com/clips.html>.

Raise $15,000 or more* in one evening!

- .Share a timely, provocative, and inspiring message.
- .Create greater awareness of your organization and your mission.
- .Create networking opportunities.
- .Show appreciation to your volunteers.

*Actual proceeds depend on fees & options, ticket prices, attendance, sponsorship, etc.

Minimum show preparation for the Nonprofit

Secure venue, obtain sponsorships, promote show, sell tickets, keep proceeds.

Entertaining Keynote Performance Option

Tony also performs an enjoyable and inspiring 30-minute keynote performance version of Mario the Peddler for conferences, meetings, seminars, luncheons, dinners, and retreats. Tony appears with bag of trinkets in his character portrayal of Mario, a New York City street peddler, humorist, and philosopher extraordinaire.

"Tony's message of the magic of love was the perfect addition to our gathering.

We were both entertained and inspired!"

Stefka Czarnecki Fanchi-Executive Director, Colorado Habitat for Humanity

Workshops, seminars and Q&As also are available following a performance. These may be customized to meet your objectives such as corporate storytelling to get your employees and/or associates more engaged in the nonprofit's vision and to help them visualize how they individually can best contribute to the mission.

Mario the PEDDLER

claim your liberty!

Contact: Mario the Peddler Productions
1000 Boxelder Circle; Longmont, CO 80503
Direct: 303.517.5825 Fax: 303.774.8713
E-mail: info@mariothepeddler.com